

'Night Taxi Boy' by No Thoughts No Gravity

I take the stairs, he takes the strain
It's cold outside, but he won't run the engine
He bides his time all through the night
He waits for me and takes me on my journey

But ice and vodka rule
In this HELL ON EARTH I call a city
And I'm hoping that you will release me
To my Night Taxi Boy

I roll tonight on freebase, ice and vodka
I roll tonight for more freebase, ice and vodka
But he's in my plans

I bide my time from door to door
They wait for me, I wonder what they'll ask for

But ice and vodka rule
In this HELL ON EARTH I call a city
And I'm hoping that you will release me
To my Night Taxi Boy
